From the desk of Fr. Dooley: This is Passion Sunday or Palm Sunday; it is the beginning of Holy Week. The procession recounts Jesus entry into Jerusalem with shouts of Hosanna. It is during Mass that we hear the Passion Narrative according to St. Luke. The evangelist tells us how Jesus teaches, heals and forgives even as He is being crucified. Holy Week marks the Church's annual celebration of the events of Christ's Passion, Death, and Resurrection, which we call His Paschal Mystery

Throughout Lent we have been following Christ to Jerusalem, towards the Cross. This final week of the journey becomes a time of intense prayer and leads us to solemnly celebrate the Sacred Triduum; the holy three days of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday.

On Holy Thursday at 7p.m. we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper in which we remember the gift of Christ's Body and Blood given for us and we clearly see the connection it has to service through the washing of feet, the Mandatum. That evening following the Mass we are invited to spend time in quiet adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, just as the disciples were asked to keep our Lord company in the Garden of Gethsemane.

Good Friday and the Veneration of the Cross will be at 7p.m., we again read the Passion Narrative, this time from the Gospel of St. John. Then we venerate the Cross on which hung our salvation. There are no celebrations of the sacraments on this day, Communion is received having been consecrated at the Mass of the Lord's Supper. It is a solemn and somber time when we remember that the Christ died to save us from sin.

Finally, we come the Holy Saturday and the Celebration of the Easter Vigil at 8p.m. In darkness the light of the risen Christ shines out. We hear the ancient biblical stories of God saving His people. Then we hear about the empty tomb. It is a great moment in the life of the Church. Christ has conquered and the Glory of God shines brightly. All this leads to the joys of Easter Sunday Morning and scriptural account of the Resurrected Christ.

I would like to personally invite you and your family to come to the events of Holy Week. The Sacred Triduum this year will be at St. Joseph's in Winterset. If you cannot attend, please consider reading the scriptures for those days and enter into the sacrificial spirit of the week.

Confession Times: St. Pat's 7:15 am on Sundays; St. Joe's 3:30pm on Saturdays

Lenten Evening Prayer Evening Prayer at St. Joseph's on Sundays at 4p.m.

Eucharistic Adoration: at St. Joe's: on Tues from 11 am to 6 pm. Those attending are encouraged to bring their prayer books, a bible, or a book on the faith for their meditation. We will have Benediction (blessing) at 6:00pm. Holy Mass then follows at 6:15pm.

St. Patrick's Holy Hour: there will be NO holy Hour, Mass since it is Holy Thursday.

St. Patrick's Parish Council will meet Thursday April 17th at 6:30 pm

St. Joseph's Finance Council will meet on Thursday April 28th at 7pm

FORMED: parishioners of both parishes can check out the latest offerings from FORMED. There you will find shows, podcasts, movies and audio books on the Catholic Faith. It is a wonderful resource for development of your spiritual life. Go to formed.org, type click on "I belong.." type in Winterset's zip code 50273 to find all the amazing and Catholic things to watch.

Prayer: To Jesus Christ Crucified. My good and dear Jesus, I kneel before you, asking you most earnestly to engrave upon my heart a deep and lively faith, hope and charity, with true repentance for my sins, and a firm resolve to make amends. As I reflect upon your five wounds, and dwell upon them with deep compassion and grief, I recall, good Jesus, the words the prophet David spoke long ago concerning yourself: "They pierced My hands and My feet; they have numbered all My bones."
